

Our alumnus Dr. Muskan Dhandhi has joined the National Institute of Technology (NIT) Srinagar, Uttarakhand, as an Assistant Professor in English in August 2024.

She defended her PhD in February 2024 on Translation and Haryanvi Folklore under the supervision of Dr. Suman Sigroha. She is a recipient of Charles Wallace India Trust Research Grant 2023 for her research visit to the United Kingdom, jointly sponsored by British Council (UK) and Charles Wallace India Trust. She is also a recipient of a visiting fellow research grant under Shastri Indo Canadian MITACS Globalink Research Award 2022-2023, jointly sponsored by MITACS and Shastri Indo Canadian Institute (SICI) for a semester-long academic research visit at Concordia University Montreal, Canada.

Dr. Muskan Dhandhi is sincerely grateful to her PhD supervisor and mentor Dr. Suman for her unwavering support, guidance, and patience, which has helped her in achieving this milestone.
